k. Any licensed alligator rancher who has also been appointed as an agent trapper who fails to obtain proper permits before harvesting, selling, or transporting alligators of wild origin to his ranching facility shall be in direct violation of MISS. CODE ANN. §49-7-47, harvesting of alligators for commercial purposes without a permit, and shall therefore be guilty of a Class I violation as specified by that code.

Documentation shall be sufficient to demonstrate the inventory is commensurate with production and survival levels for captive populations as measured against professionally accepted biological standards.

e. Permits to establish and operate alligator ranches are not transferrable except when incident to sale or other transfer of ownership of the facility where transferees of the facility have met criteria established by Department rule and subject to the approval of the permit transfer by the Department.

f. The permittee shall provide security of facility premises necessary to ensure that no alligators, eggs, or parts thereof can be moved in or out of the alligator ranch without the permittee's knowledge.

g. The Department shall issue forms to each alligator rancher to be completed annually. These forms shall be submitted to the Alligator Program Coordinator as requested.

h. Alligator ranch and egg/hatchling producing facility permittees shall be licensed at an annual fee of $100.00.

accepted for consideration by the Commission. Applications must include a complete business plan proposal, maps, financial plan, and other documents as requested. Applications will be reviewed by a panel appointed by the Director prior to submission to the Commission for approval for its consideration. Upon permit approval, any egg/hatchling producing facility shall be subject to the same rules, regulations, specifications, and inspections as described in this Rule for an alligator ranch.

m. Failure to conduct commercial propagation within a twenty-four (24) month period will be deemed non-commercial and will result in revocation of the ranch license.

2. Specifications for alligator ranches:

a. Pens or holding facilities shall be constructed in a manner to prevent escape of any alligator contained in such pen or facility or entrance by any alligator from outside such pen or facility.

b. The permittee shall provide rearing tanks (of concrete, fiberglass, plastic, or metal construction) for alligators less than four (4) feet in length but the Department may, at its discretion, allow alligators three (3) to four (4) feet in length to be confined in outdoor facilities. Alligators less than two (2) feet in length shall be housed separately from those two (2) to four (4) feet in length. Onsite propagation facilities will also provide ponds, nest sites, and spacing for breeding adults, and artificial incubators. The Department, at its discretion, may specify specific spacing requirements and stocking rates for propagation facilities.

c. The permittee shall make all alligator eggs produced on the ranch available for inspection by September 15 of each nesting year. All alligator eggs shall be in containers having not more than one (1) layer of eggs at one (1) incubation facility on each alligator ranch. Eggs laid after September 15 may be collected and added to the egg inventory if egg development characteristics indicate a laying date after September 1, and nests are verified by Department personnel prior to being collected.

d. Alligator ranch permittees shall furnish alligator housing of sufficient size and design as provided by regulation, such that alligators shall be kept in a humane and sanitary manner.

3. Permittees may obtain a permit from the Department to receive eggs or alligators from other states provided that the stock was legally acquired and that the permittee complies with the requirements set forth in the General Provisions (1) (b) of this rule and the rules of the state of origin.

4. Additional specifications for raising alligator hatchlings:

a. The Department may, at its discretion, require marking of baby alligators and may provide specifications for markings.

b. Rearing tanks shall contain dry and wet areas of sufficient surface area to permit all alligators to completely submerge in water and completely exit from water and orient in any direction without touching the sides of the tank. Dry areas may be in the form of constructed platforms installed in each tank designed in such a fashion as to permit alligators to completely exit the water and rest on the platforms. The Department may, at its discretion, require specific alligator stocking rates for specific facilities. These requirements shall be made in writing. Failure to comply with these recommendations shall constitute a violation of this rule.

c. Rearing tank(s) must be readily drainable for purposes of inventory.

H. Sale of Alligators

1. No operator or agent trapper shall sell any live alligator unless the Live Alligator Sales Form has been submitted and approved. No sale of live alligators shall be approved unless the operator verifies to the satisfaction of the Department that the alligators were hatched and reared at his facility or purchased as provided by regulation. RULE 8.5 DECOMMISSION OF ENCLOSURES CONTAINING WHITE-TAILED DEER.

A. Enclosures and/or permitted facilities preventing the free ingress and egress of wild animals, may, by fully complying with the terms, conditions, and provisions of this rule, cease operations as a wildlife enclosure, without being in violation of 40 MISS. ADMIN. CODE, Part 2, Rule 8.2.D.6.

B. Before an enclosure may be decommissioned, the enclosure owner must submit a decommission application to the MDWFP. After receipt of the application, the enclosure owner will be contacted by an employee of the MDWFP, designated by the Executive Director, to begin the process. Every application for decommissioning shall be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

C. Biologists from the Wildlife Bureau of the MDWFP will inspect the facility and evaluate the risks of ceasing operations based upon an established set of criteria for releasing captive animals into the wild. Such criteria have been developed by and in consultation with the State Veterinarian and other professionals to assess the risk of introducing disease into the wildlife population and/or domestic livestock.

1. Criteria for “low risk” and “high risk” facilities may only be altered based upon clear and convincing evidence of significant changes in technology, biological testing, or other objective methods for identifying risk factors such as disease. Copies of applicable criteria may be provided upon request.

2. Other factors affecting risk evaluation may include, but are not limited to: evidence of movement of deer between facilities, reasonable belief of importation of deer from outside the state, or other instances of noncompliance with established rules for the operations of wildlife enclosures.

3. Presence of breeding facilities – at the time of the request or at any time during the existence of the facility - and/or other species (exotics) will qualify a facility as “high risk.”

D. The MDWFP, in consultation with the State Veterinarian, shall develop a Decommissioning Plan for the requesting facility. Plan methods have been developed by and in consultation with the State Veterinarian and other professionals to address the risk of introducing disease into the wildlife population and/or domestic livestock. Copies of applicable methods may be provided upon request.

E. Upon receipt of the Decommissioning Plan, the facility may begin decommissioning operations with the guidance of technical staff from the MDWFP. Issuance of a Decommissioning Plan shall be made contingent upon the understanding that the facility is consenting to periodic inspection and review of decommissioning operations by the MDWFP, the State Veterinarian, or any of their designees. All animal disease sampling/testing shall be subject to the oversight of the MDWFP and the State Veterinarian.

F. All costs associated with the decommissioning process shall be borne by the facility owner.

G. Methods for decommissioning high-fenced enclosures containing white-tailed deer may include depopulation, genetic testing, and lethal disease testing.

H. If enclosures contain exotic, non-native animals, as defined in MISS. CODE ANN. §75-33-3, the enclosures must be depopulated of those exotic animals, and the depopulation must be verified by the MDWFP, prior to decommissioning, or the fence must remain intact. MISS. CODE ANN. §49-7-80 prohibits the release of exotics into the wild. Depopulation of exotic, non-native animals may include legal trade as regulated by the Mississippi Board of Animal Health, or euthanasia.

I. Any enclosure that has fully complied with its Decommissioning Plan, as certified by the MDWFP and the State Veterinarian, may have the gates completely removed, all or part of the fence completely removed, or the fence lowered to a height of four (4) feet or less for a minimum of twenty-five (25) percent of the linear footage of the fence, so as to allow the ingress and egress of wild animals.

J. If an enclosure requesting to be decommissioned contains feral hogs, and the facility has prevented, and continues to prevent, the free ingress and/or egress of those feral hogs, the facility must be depopulated of the entire feral hog population, or the fence must remain intact, at a minimum height of four (4) feet, to prevent the movement of feral hogs onto adjacent properties.

K. Failure to substantially comply with the Decommissioning Plan may result in denial of decommissioning and/or citations for violations of Commission regulations as provided in MISS. CODE ANN. §49-7-101.
