

Part 5 Chapter 8: Apostilles and Authentications

Rule 8.1 Authentications On a notarized document sent to another state or nation, evidence of the authenticity of the official seal and signature of a notary of this [State], if required

- A. a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State and authenticated as necessary by additional certificates from United States and/or foreign government agencies; or
- B. in the case of a notarized document to be used in a nation that has signed and ratified the Hague Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents of October 5, 1961, an Apostille from the Secretary of State in the form prescribed by the Convention.

Rule 8.1.1 Refusal. The Secretary of State may refuse certification for a document when it has good reason to believe that the certification is desired for an unlawful or improper purpose. It is therefore, the duty of the Authentication Officer to examine the document, as may be necessary to establish that the requested authentication is appropriate and not in contrary to public interest.
