

BEHIND THE BADGE

Barry Chandler
Patrol Deputy
Madison County Sheriff's Department

“Mississippi’s law enforcement are the best in the nation. Time and time again, these brave men and women answer the call to protect and serve, putting their lives on the line to protect ours. The Secretary of State’s Office is proud to honor their service to our great State.”

Dellert

Barry Chandler has been in law enforcement since 1992 and currently serves as a patrol deputy at the Madison County Sheriff’s Department. He has devoted his life to serving the public by providing his services as a law enforcement officer.

When not serving the public, Barry enjoys woodworking and gunsmithing. He also enjoys taking kids, who would not normally get such opportunities, hunting and fishing.

He and his family have been members of First Baptist Church for more than 10 years. They are Madison County residents. His wife is a registered nurse at the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson. The couple has three children: a daughter who graduates from nursing school in December and is getting married in November; a son who works for AMR and is in paramedic school at Holmes Community College in Ridgeland; and a younger son who attends Germantown High School.
