

BEHIND THE BADGE

Marcus Wilson

Detective | Oxford Police Department

Detective Marcus Wilson grew up in Courtland, Mississippi and is a 2001 graduate of South Panola High School. In August of 2006, Detective Wilson began his career as a police officer with the Oxford Police Department. Detective Wilson has served as a patrol officer, public housing agent, honor guard member, and now he is currently serving as a criminal investigator.

When Detective Wilson is not at work, he enjoys spending time outdoors. He loves hunting, fishing, and riding four wheelers. Detective Wilson has a nine year old son and a four year old daughter who both share his love of the outdoors and sports. Detective Wilson spends his weekends watching his children play football, soccer, and other activities. Detective Wilson is a proud father. His family is what inspires him to serve and make a difference every day.

“Mississippi’s law enforcement are the best in the nation. Time and time again, these brave men and women answer the call to protect and serve, putting their lives on the line to protect ours. The Secretary of State’s Office is proud to honor their service to our great State.”
