Chapter 1: Lobbying at a Glance

SNAPSHOT

- ✓ The Secretary of State's Office electronically receives registrations and required reports.
- ✓ The lobbying cycle begin on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each year.
- ✓ Three (3) reports required per lobbying cycle

The Secretary of State's Office

The State of Mississippi receives registrations and required reports through electronic filing with the Elections Division of the Secretary of State's Office. The Secretary of State's Office provides all necessary forms online, issues certificates of registration, and makes all filed statements and reports available for public inspection and copying. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-19). The Secretary of State's Office may assess a civil penalty against any person who fails to file a required report or who fails to file a required report in compliance with the material particulars of the Lobbying Law Reform Act of 1994. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17). All forms and registration information are available online at <http://www.sos.ms.gov/elec/portal/mse/portal.aspx>.

Definitions

Mississippi law defines "lobbying" as:

- influencing or attempting to influence legislative or executive action through oral or written communication;
- solicitation of others to influence legislative or executive action;
- paying or promising to pay anything of value directly or indirectly related to legislative or executive action. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-3(k)).

Mississippi law defines a "lobbyist's client" as:

- an entity or person in whose behalf the lobbyist influences or attempts to influence legislative or executive action.

Mississippi law defines a "lobbyist" as an individual who:

- is employed and receives payments, or who contracts for economic consideration, including reimbursement for reasonable travel and living expenses, for the purpose of lobbying;
- represents a legislative or public official or public employee, or who represents a person, organization, association or other group, for the purpose of lobbying; or

- is a sole proprietor, owner, part owner, or shareholder in a business, who has a pecuniary interest in legislative or executive action, who engages in lobbying activities. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-3(1)).

Mississippi law excludes certain individuals from the definition of “lobbyist” and “lobbyist’s client” who are exempt from the registration and reporting requirements of the Lobbying Law Reform Act of 1994. See, Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-7 at Appendix D for further information.

The Lobbying Cycle: The Reports

Current lobbying reporting processes applicable to all lobbyists and their respective clients in the State of Mississippi are the result of the Lobbying Law Reform Act of 1994. (Miss. Code Ann. §§ 5-8-1, et seq.). Unless excepted from the statutory definition of “lobbyist,” every lobbyist and lobbyist’s client must file a registration statement with the Secretary of State’s Office within five (5) calendar days after becoming a lobbyist or lobbyist’s client, or beginning to lobby on behalf of a new client. The Mississippi lobbying cycle begins on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each calendar year and registration is required each calendar year.

All lobbying reports for the cycle are filed electronically with the Secretary of State’s Office. Mississippi statute requires all registered lobbyists to file three (3) reports during the lobbying cycle:

- Legislative Mid-Session Report due on February 25th
- Legislative End-of-Session Report due within ten (10) days after sine die
- Annual Report of Expenditures due no later than January 30th (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-11(5)(6)).

Registered lobbyists’ clients file one (1) report, the Annual Report, with the Secretary of State’s Office during the lobbying cycle.

Enforcement

The Secretary of State’s Office must assess a civil penalty against lobbyists and lobbyists’ clients who fail to file a required report by the statutory deadline, or who file a report which fails to comply with the material particulars of the statute(s). (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17(1)). Within five (5) calendar days after any deadline for filing a report, the Secretary of State provides each lobbyist or lobbyist’s client who failed to file a required report notice of said failure by certified and regular mail. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17(1)(a)). Beginning with the tenth (10th) calendar day after a filing deadline, the Secretary of State assesses a delinquent lobbyist or lobbyist’s client a civil penalty of $50.00 per day and part of any day until a valid report is filed with the Secretary of State’s Office for a maximum of ten (10) days. However, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the fine may be waived, in whole or in part, if “unforeseeable mitigating circumstances” interfered with the timely filing of a required report.

Chapter 2: Registration

SNAPSHOT

- ✓ Registration Required Annually
- ✓ $25.00 Registration Fee Annually
- ✓ Registrations must be completed online

Who Must Register?

Every lobbyist and every lobbyist's client is required to electronically file a registration statement with the Secretary of State's Office within five (5) calendar days after becoming a lobbyist, becoming a lobbyist's client or beginning to lobby for a new client. Registration forms and additional information is available online at <http://www.sos.ms.gov/elec/portal/mse/portal.aspx>. The filing of every registration statement must be accompanied by the payment of a twenty-five dollar ($25.00) registration fee. An additional fee also may be charged per electronic transaction based upon the credit card used to remit initial payment of the registration fee.

Registration is valid for one (1) calendar year, beginning January 1 and ending December 31 of each year. The registration of a lobbyist or lobbyist's client who files after January 1 is effective upon receipt by the Secretary of State's Office and terminates on December 31. Filing a registration statement on January 1 of each year is recommended for those who lobby (or are represented by a lobbyist) on an on-going basis. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-5).

Exemptions

Mississippi law excludes certain individuals from the definition of "lobbyist" and "lobbyist's client" who are exempt from the registration requirement of the Lobbying Law Reform Act of 1994. See Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-7 at Appendix D for further information.

Termination

A lobbyist or lobbyist's client may terminate his/her registration prior to the end of the lobbying cycle (i.e., Dec. 31) by filing a Termination of Lobbyist Registration (Form T). An Annual Report is filed simultaneous with the filing of the termination report, providing a final accounting of all lobbying activity. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-5(5)).

Chapter 3: Reporting Lobbying Activity

- ✓ Lobbyists must file two (2) Legislative Expenditure Reports Annually (Form E).

Reporting Requirements

Reporting expenditures is a mandatory part of the lobbying process. The Lobbying Law Reform Act of 1994 requires lobbyists to file two (2) Legislative Expenditure Reports and one (1) Annual Report each calendar year. A lobbyist must file a separate report for each of his/her clients. Lobbyists' clients are required to file an Annual Report each calendar year.

The filer's Certificate Number must be included on each report. While this number is typically auto populated in the electronic filing of each report, the number may be found on the lobbyist's certificate issued by the Secretary of State's Office upon registration.

Lobbyists and lobbyists' clients are strongly encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Lobbying Law Reform Act of 1994, Miss. Code Ann. §§ 5-8-1, et seq. (Appendix D).

All forms are available on-line at <http://www.sos.ms.gov/elec/portal/mse/portal.aspx>.

Legislative Expenditure Reports

All lobbyists registered before February 25 must file the Mid-Session Legislative Expenditure Report (Form E). This first expenditure report is due on February 25 of each calendar year, such date representing the mid-point of the legislative session. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-11(6)).

All lobbyists registered before the last day of the legislative session must file the End-of-Session Legislative Expenditure Report (Form E). This second expenditure report is due ten (10) days after *sine die, i.e., the last day of the legislative session. This date is dependent on the calendar date of sine die and is subject to change if the legislative session is extended or shortened.

Legislative Expenditure Reports include the name of the executive, legislative or public official or public employee who receives anything of value from the lobbyist or from the lobbyist on behalf of the lobbyist's client, the name of the person receiving the payment, the name of the person making the payment, the amount of the payment and the date of the payment. These reports must be filed when due, even if no reportable expenditures were made by the lobbyist. However, any lobbyist who lobbies local government exclusively is exempt from the requirement of filing the Legislative Expenditure Reports. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-11(6)).

Expenditures made after sine die or during a special session of the Legislature are disclosed by the lobbyist in his/her Annual Report (Form A).

Annual Reports

All registered lobbyists (Form A) and lobbyists' clients (Form C) must file an Annual Report no later than January 30 of each calendar year. This report contains information on all expenditures paid or initiated by the lobbyist on behalf of each lobbyist's client during the preceding twelve (12) calendar months (January 1 through December 31), and it includes a cumulative total for the calendar year of all reportable categories. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-11(5)).

Grace Period

The law affords a delinquent lobbyist or lobbyist's client a grace period of nine (9) calendar days within which to file a required report and avoid the levy of statutory penalties. Within five (5) calendar days after any deadline for filing a report, the Secretary of State provides each lobbyist or lobbyist's client who failed to file a required report, notice of such failure by certified and regular mail. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17(1)(a)). Beginning with the tenth (10th) calendar day after a filing deadline, the Secretary of State assesses a delinquent lobbyist or lobbyist's client a civil penalty of $50.00 per day and part of any day until a valid report is filed, for a maximum of ten (10) days.

FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A REQUIRED REPORT MAY RESULT IN THE ASSESSMENT OF A CIVIL PENALTY.

Chapter 4: Penalties

SNAPSHOT

- ✓ Civil fine assessment begins ten (10) days after all reporting deadlines.
- ✓ Fines are assessed at the rate of $50 per day.
- ✓ Fines are assessed each reporting deadline.

The Secretary of State's Office must, by statute, assess a civil penalty against any lobbyist and lobbyist's client who fails to file a required report by the statutory deadline, or who files a report which fails to comply with the material particulars of the statute(s). (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17(1)). To avoid the assessment of a civil penalty, please ensure all required reports are filed on-line at <http://www.sos.ms.gov/elec/portal/mse/portal.aspx>, no later than 5:00 p.m. CST on the deadline date.

Within five (5) calendar days after any deadline for filing a report, the Secretary of State's Office provides each lobbyist or lobbyist's client who failed to file a required report notice of said failure by certified and regular mail. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17(1)(a)). Beginning with the tenth (10th) calendar day after a filing deadline, the Secretary of State assesses a delinquent lobbyist or lobbyist's client a civil penalty of $50.00 per day and part of any day until a valid report is filed with the Secretary of State's Office, for a maximum of ten (10) days. Failure to receive written notice prior to the 10th calendar day following the filing deadline will not result in a waiver of or reduction in the civil penalty assessed against a delinquent lobbyist or lobbyist's client.

In the discretion of the Secretary of State, a fine may be waived, in whole or in part, if unforeseeable mitigating circumstances, such as the health of the lobbyist, interfered with the timely filing of a required report. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-17).

Filing of the required report and payment the fine within ten (10) calendar days of notice by the Secretary of State's Office that a required statement has not been filed constitutes statutory compliance. Payment of the fine without filing the required report does not in any way excuse or exempt any person required to file from the filing requirements and thus, does not constitute statutory compliance.

Criminal Penalties

Any person who intentionally violates the provisions of the Act shall, upon conviction for a first offense, be fined not more than $1,000 and/or imprisoned in the county jail not more than six (6) months and upon conviction for a subsequent offense be fined not more than $5,000 and/or imprisoned in the Penitentiary not more than three (3) years. (Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-21).

Appendix A: General Interpretations

Sales

Payments or expenses associated with sales to state and local governments that are subject to the purchasing laws of the State of Mississippi are generally not subject to the lobbying law registration or reporting requirements. See Mississippi Attorney General's Official Opinion to the Honorable Tim Ford dated February 17, 1995 (Opinion No. 1994-0837).

Executive Action

Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-3(d) (1972) defines executive action as:

(d) the proposal, drafting, development, consideration, amendment, adoption, approval, promulgation, issuance, modification, rejection or postponement by a state or local governmental entity of a rule, regulation, order, decision, determination or other quasi-legislative action or proceeding.

Accordingly, routine matters by agencies and local governments which do not require an official order or other official action described above do not generally fall within the definition of executive action.

Quasi-Judicial Action

While the definition of executive action in Miss. Code Ann. § 5-8-3(d) includes references to various executive and quasi-legislative actions, no reference is made to quasi-judicial proceedings.

Accordingly, the position of the Secretary of State's Office is that payments or expenses associated solely with a purely quasi-judicial forum or proceeding are not subject to the requirements of the lobbying law.

Community Economic Development Agencies

As a general rule, the Secretary of State's Office does not regard as influence on executive or legislative action the traditional activities of government-funded community economic development agencies — including the promotion of location and expansion of businesses in a specific community or geographic area.

Thus, such bona-fide economic development activities undertaken by community economic development agencies which are funded in whole or in part by government funds (including chambers of commerce which receive government funding) may generally be undertaken without being subject to the lobbying law.

However, the agency or chamber should register and report lobbying activity if it undertakes a lobbying effort unrelated to its economic development mission within its particular community or geographic area.

Acknowledging that government-funded community economic development agencies frequently enlist the support of existing business enterprising in assisting their bona-fide economic development activities, the position of the Secretary of State's Office is that such assistance is likewise generally not subject to the lobbying law if the community economic development agency makes a specific request for a particular form of assistance. Contemporaneous records should be kept of all such requests.

Training For Community Health, Safety, and Welfare

The Secretary of State's Office generally does not regard expenditures made strictly in the context of training offered for the general health, safety, and welfare of the community as lobbying activity. For example, training provided to local government employees on utility line safety is not considered lobbying.

- Q. If something of value is given to a judicial official is that required to be reported?

- A. Yes. If you spend more than $200 per year in the aggregate to influence decision-making by public officials, you must register as a lobbyist.

Q. I am an attorney arguing a case before a Mississippi court. Must I register as a lobbyist?

A. No. The lobbying law applies only to legislative and executive bodies, boards and commissions, including boards of supervisors.

Q. I am a state agency employee, whose job involves working with legislators to promote or defeat legislation of interest to my agency. Must I register as a lobbyist?

A. Yes, if lobbying is a primary or regular function of your job, or if you give the legislators more than $200 in the aggregate worth of things of value in a calendar year.

Q. I own a few shares in a company that employs lobbyists. If I take a legislator to dinner about a bill affecting that company, must I register as a lobbyist?

A. No, unless you spend more than $200 in the aggregate per year to influence the decisions of public officials.

Q. I am a registered lobbyist. If I buy a public official a $12 lunch, what must I report?

A. When buying lunch for a public official, you must report the lunch, the value of the lunch, where the lunch occurred, your name, and the name of the official.

Q. I work for a “good government” organization that encourages its members to contact their legislators to attempt to influence their votes on specific legislation. Should we list this expense on our periodic reports?

A. Yes.

Q. Our company, which is registered as a lobbyist’s client, invites the entire Legislature and all statewide officials to a reception each year. Must we itemize the names of all attendees?

A. No. The law specifically exempts from itemization requirements receptions held for the entire Legislature and all statewide officials. This statute refers to food at such an event as “for immediate consumption,” which means it is eaten within the span of one day.

Q. Because of errors by the post office (or misrouting of mail in my office), I never received my fine warning letter until after the fine was assessed. Will I still be assessed a civil penalty?

A. Yes. Failure to receive written notice prior to the 10th calendar day following the filing deadline will not result in a waiver of or reduction in the civil penalty assessed against a delinquent lobbyist or lobbyist’s client.

Lobbyists and lobbyists’ clients are advised to familiarize themselves with the statutory requirements and dates. The law requires the final fine warning notice to be mailed but does not condition assessment of the fine on receipt prior to the fine assessment date

The Secretary of State shall provide each Lobbyist or Lobbyist's Client who has failed to file such a report notice of such failure by certified mail.

(b) Beginning with the tenth calendar day after which any report shall be due, the Secretary of State shall assess the delinquent Lobbyist and delinquent Lobbyist's Client a civil penalty of fifty dollars ($50) per day and part of any day until a valid report is delivered to the Secretary of State, up to a maximum of ten (10) days. However, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the assessing of such fine may be waived if the Secretary of State shall determine that unforeseeable mitigating circumstances, such as the health of the Lobbyist, shall interfere with timely filing of a required report.

(c) Filing of the required report and payment of the fine within ten (10) calendar days of notice by the Secretary of State that a required statement has not been filed constitutes compliance with Section 5-8-1 through Section 5-8-19 of this chapter.

(d) Payment of the fine without filing the required report does not in any way excuse or exempt any person required to file from the filing requirements of Section 5-8-1 through Section 5-8-19 of this chapter.

(2) (a) Upon the sworn application of a Lobbyist or Lobbyist's Client against whom a civil penalty has been assessed pursuant to subsection (1), the Secretary of State shall forward the application to the Mississippi Ethics Commission. At the hearing, the hearing officer shall administer oaths as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing. All hearings shall be conducted by the commission, who shall not be bound by strict rules of procedure or by the laws of evidence in the conduct of the proceedings, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient evidence to sustain it.

(e) Where, in any proceeding before the commission, any witness fails or refuses to attend upon a subpoena issued by the commission, refuses to testify, or refuses to produce any books and papers the production of which is called for by a subpoena, the attendance of such witness, the giving of his testimony or the production of the books and papers shall be enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction of this state in the manner provided for the enforcement of attendance and testimony of witnesses in civil cases in the courts of this state.

(f) Within fifteen (15) calendar days after conclusion of the hearing, the commission shall reduce its decision to writing and forward an attested true copy thereof to the last known business address of the Lobbyist or Lobbyist's Client by way of United States first-class, certified mail, postage prepaid.

(3) (a) The right to appeal from the decision of the commission in an administrative hearing concerning the assessment of civil penalties authorized pursuant to this section is hereby granted. Such appeal shall be to the Circuit Court of Hinds County and shall include a verbatim transcript of the testimony at the hearing. The appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) calendar days after notice of the decision of the commission following an administrative hearing. The appeal shall be perfected upon filing notice of the appeal and by the prepayment of all costs, including the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings by the commission, and the filing of a bond in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200), conditioned that if the decision of the commission be affirmed by the court, the Lobbyist or Lobbyist's Client will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court. If the decision is reversed by the court, the Secretary of State will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court.

(b) If there is an appeal, such appeal shall act as a supersedeas. The court shall dispose of the appeal and enter its decision promptly. The hearing on the appeal may be tried in vacation, in the court's discretion. The scope of review of the court shall be limited to a review of the record made before the commission to determine if the action of the commission is unlawful for the reason that it was (i) not supported by substantial evidence, (ii) arbitrary or capricious, (iii) beyond the power of the commission to make, or (iv) in violation of some statutory or constitutional right of the appellant. The decision of the court may be appealed to the Supreme Court in the manner provided by law.

(4) If, after forty-five (45) calendar days of the date of the administrative hearing procedure set forth in subsection two (2), the Lobbyist or Lobbyist's Client shall not file a valid report as required by law, the commission shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency. The Attorney General shall investigate said offense in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
