Election Day
Preparation

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Election Preparation

- Pre-Election Day Duties:
 - Conduct Voter Roll Maintenance
 - Qualify Candidates
 - Appoint and Train Poll Managers and Resolution Board
 - Print Ballots :
 - To be printed and made available for absentee voting at least 45 days before the election.
 - Voting Devices
 - Ensure in working order and complete Logic and Accuracy (L&A) testing on each machine at least 3 days prior to the election.
 - Deliver machines to each precinct.

Election Day

DELBERT HOSEMANN
 Secretary of State

Morning of Election – Before Polls Open

- Check in with precincts to ensure polls open on time (7:00 AM) and properly.
 - Poll Managers begin opening voting machines at 6:00 AM.
 - Ensure Poll Managers are following opening routine:
 - The right machine is in the right location by checking serial number.
 - Unlock machine.
 - Unseal the tape and insert memory card.
 - Reseal machine and record seal numbers.
 - Print zero tape and secure printer (if using the aypm).
 - Post one (1) zero tape to the wall of the precinct and place one (1) zero tape inside the memory card transport bag to return to election central.
- Address any problems before polls open

DELBERT HOSEMANN
 Secretary of State

Election Day

- "Election Central" is at the courthouse.
- Election commissioners should work out a schedule prior to the election so that at least one commissioner is at the courthouse at all times on election day.
- Poll managers and voters will call the courthouse to report problems and ask questions. Someone responsible and competent must be there to assist.
- When commissioners are not at the courthouse, commissioners are visiting precincts in their districts to ensure operations are running smoothly or to resolve issues reported by the public.

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Election Central

- County may employ "Troubleshooters" who staff the phone and field questions. They may contact county techs in the field to follow up on problems reported with the voting machines or may contact the election commissioners to direct them to trouble spots.
- In a county election, the Circuit Clerk, as registrar, should answer questions regarding voter registration and voter rolls.
 - Why is the voter's name not on the pollbook?
 - Is the voter in the wrong precinct?

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Affidavit Ballot Checklist
Voter's Name Not in the Pollbook

If a voter appears at the polling place and the voter's name is not on the pollbook:

1. The poll managers must then determine if the voter is in the correct precinct by referring to the master list of county voters, by contacting the circuit clerk or election commissioners, or by asking the voter his/her residential address.

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Affidavit Ballot Checklist
Voter's Name Not in the Pollbook (cont.)

2. If the voter should vote in another precinct, direct the voter to the proper precinct.

- Why? If a voter casts a ballot at a precinct other than the precinct of his residence, the entire ballot must be rejected.

3. If the poll managers confirm the voter is in the correct precinct, the voter is entitled to vote by affidavit ballot.

Reference: Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-573

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Affidavit Ballot Checklist

 - Must have seal of the circuit or municipal clerk affixed to it and be initialized by registrar or his deputy.
- Once application is received, the Clerk provides an absentee ballot to voter either in person in Clerk's office or by mail if the voter is eligible to receive an absentee ballot by mail.

DELBERT ROSEMANN
Secretary of State

Absentee Ballot Examination

- When polls close, the poll managers remove the absentee ballot envelopes from ballot box.
- Announce name, address, and precinct on each envelope.
- Review the absentee application.
- Compare the signature on back of absentee envelope with the signature on the application.
- If an affidavit was required, confirm it is sufficient.
- Confirm the absentee voter did not vote in person at the precinct on election day.

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Examination of Absentee Ballots (TSX)

- If everything is OK, mark the UNOPENED ballot envelope "ACCEPTED" and place in an "Accepted Absentee Ballot" strong envelope.
- Enter voter's name in the receipt book.
- Mark "VOTED" next to the voter's name in the pollbook.
- If everything is not OK, mark the UNOPENED absentee ballot as "REJECTED" and place in a "Rejected Absentee Ballot" strong envelope.
- All UNOPENED absentee ballot envelopes must be returned to the ballot box, sealed and delivered to the election commissioners at the central tabulation location.
- Election commissioners open the "ACCEPTED" absentee ballot envelopes and process the ballots through the central scanner. Election Commissioners do not "re-review" the absentee ballot envelopes.
- Add scanned totals to TSX totals for unofficial vote count.

Reference: Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-639(2)

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Examination of Ballots (non-DRE)

- If everything is OK, OPEN the absentee ballot envelope, and remove the ballot, without unfolding or examining the ballot.
- Deposit the ballot into the ballot box before counting any ballots.
- Enter voter's name in the receipt book.
- Mark "VOTED" next to the voter's name in the pollbook.
- If precinct scanners are used, place all absentee ballots in the ballot box before any ballots are counted.
- Poll managers for each precinct shall immediately count the absentee ballots and add them to the votes cast in the voting machine or device.

Reference: Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-639(1)

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Purpose of Resolution Board

- The Resolution Board manually reviews all damaged, defective, blank, or over-voted ballots rejected by tabulating equipment.
- The Board attempts to determine the intent of the voter and records the vote intended by the voter.

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Composition of Resolution Board

- Appointed by Election Commission
- Qualified electors of the county
- An odd number of not less than three (3) members
- Trained in the same manner as poll managers
- Resolution Board judges cannot be:
 - Election Commissioners
 - Candidates on the ballot
 - Parents, siblings or children of candidates on ballot

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Manually Counting Ballots

- The Resolution Board manually counts ballots only when the ballots are:
 - Rejected by tabulating equipment because the ballots appear to be damaged, defective or for any other reason.
 - Rejected due to a malfunction in the tabulating equipment.
- Unless the ballot is damaged, defective, blank or over-voted, the Resolution Board does not count:
 - Absentee Ballots
 - Affidavit Ballots
 - Challenged Ballots
 - Emergency Ballots
 - Curbside Ballots

DELBERT HOSEMANN
Secretary of State

Procedure

- Ballots rejected by a voting machine must be deposited in a strong and secure envelope marked "Resolution Board."
- The "Resolution Board" envelope is to be handled by the Election Commissioners or the officials in charge of the election. The envelope is delivered to the Resolution Board.
- The Resolution Board judges manually review the damaged or defective ballots to determine the intent of the voter and record that vote accordingly.
