2008 Business Reform Committees
Minutes of Securities Laws Study Group, Meeting #5
December 3, 2008

This meeting of the Securities Law Study Group was called to order on Thursday, December 3, 2008, at 11:00 A.M. at the Office of the Secretary of State, 700 North Street, Jackson, Mississippi. A list of the persons who were present in person or by telephone is attached as Exhibit A.

Introduction

Cheryn Baker, Assistant Secretary of State for the Secretary of State's Policy and Research Division, welcomed the members to the meeting and called roll to verify everyone who was present.

Potential Changes to the Uniform Securities Act

Ms. Baker reported that since the last meeting the Study Group Chairs and Sub-Chairs met twice to review and discuss the suggestions and comments made to the Uniform Securities Act of 2002 (the "USA") by the Sub-Groups and the staff of the Secretary of State's Division of Regulation and Enforcement. The Policy and Research Division also provided the Chairs with a number of documents which compared the existing Securities Act to the USA, as well as research on the versions of the USA that have been adopted in other states. After reviewing this supplemental research, the Group disregarded many suggested changes, finding further study and discussion of these changes to be unnecessary. However, the Chairs did agree that some changes should be incorporated into the version of the Uniform Securities Act for adoption in Mississippi. Ms. Baker referred the group to the proposed Mississippi Securities Act of 2009 (the "Proposed Act") in the materials which is attached to these minutes as Exhibit B. This document has been redlined to indicate the changes that the Chairs have recommended that are not uniform with the Uniform Securities Act.

In general, the non-uniform redlined changes were made to either conform the Proposed Act to a provision in the existing Mississippi Securities Act that the Chairs believed was preferable, or to add additional provisions that would enhance the enforcement authority of the Secretary of State over persons who violate the securities laws. These additional provisions are similar to provisions that other states have adopted when they adopted the USA.

Ms. Baker proceeded to discuss each of the changes made to the Proposed Act which are set forth and described in Exhibit C (the "Recommendation of the Chairs Group").

Recommendation to Adopt the Proposed Act

Chairman Hodge asked for a motion to approve the Proposed Act in accordance with the Recommendation of the Chairs Group. A motion was made and seconded and it passed unanimously.

Other Business

Ms. Baker and Chairman Hodge thanked everyone for their participation in this Study Group and asked for their continued support as the Proposed Act is introduced into the Legislature in the 2009 General Session. Secretary Hosemann echoed these remarks and commented that he was hearing very positive feedback about the proposals of the Business Reform Study Groups from people across the State. Assistant Secretary of State Dave Scott noted to the Group that the Proposed Act would significantly enhance the enforcement powers of the Secretary of State's Office and would allow the agency to better protect investors in the State from people and professionals who violate the securities laws.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Cheryn Baker
Assistant Secretary of State

A previously filed consent to service of process complying with Section 75-71-611 may be incorporated by reference in a renewal. A renewed notice filing becomes effective upon the expiration of the filing being renewed.

If the notice is not timely received, the Administrator may issue a stop order, without prior notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this Section. The Administrator shall promptly notify the registrant of an order by telephone, facsimile or electronic means and promptly confirm this notice by a record. (e) Prospectus distribution may be required. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require as a condition of registration under this Section that a prospectus containing a specified part of the information or record specified in subsection (b) be sent or given to each person to which an offer is made, before or concurrently, with the earliest of:

- (1) the first offer made in a record to the person otherwise than by means of a public advertisement, by or for the account of the issuer or another person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer that is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by the person as a participant in the distribution;
- (2) the confirmation of a sale made by or for the account of the person;
- (3) payment pursuant to such a sale; or
- (4) delivery of the security pursuant to such a sale.

§ 75-71- 305. Securities Registration Filings.

(a) Who may file. A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, a person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a broker-dealer registered under this chapter.

(b) Filing fee. A person filing a registration statement shall pay a filing fee as set forth in Section 75-71-310. This fee shall be nonrefundable except as provided in Section 75-71-310.

(c) Status of offering. A registration statement filed under Section 75-71-303 or 75-71-304 must specify:

- (1) the amount of securities to be offered in this State;
- (2) the States in which a registration statement or similar record in connection with the offering has been or is to be filed; and
- (3) any adverse order, judgment, or decree issued in connection with the offering by a State securities regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a court.

(d) Incorporation by reference. A record filed under this chapter or the predecessor act within five (5) years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the record is currently accurate.

(e) Nonissuer distribution. In the case of a nonissuer distribution, information or a record may not be required under subsection (i) or Section 75-71-304, unless it is known to the person filing the registration statement or to the person on whose behalf the distribution is to be made or unless it can be furnished by those persons without unreasonable effort or expense.

(f) Escrow and impoundment. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require as a condition of registration that a security issued within the previous five (5) years or to be issued to a promoter for a consideration substantially less than the public offering price or to a person for a consideration other than cash be deposited in escrow; and that the proceeds from the sale of the registered security in this State be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount from the sale of the security either in this State or elsewhere. The conditions of any escrow or impoundment required under this subsection may be established by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, but the Administrator may not reject a depository institution solely because of its location in another State.

(g) Form of subscription. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require as a condition of registration that a security registered under this chapter be sold only on a specified form of subscription or sale contract and that a signed or conformed copy of each contract be filed under this chapter or preserved for a period specified by the rule or order, which may not be longer than five (5) years.

(h) Effective period. Except while a stop order is in effect under Section 75-71-306, a registration statement is effective for one year after its effective date, or for any longer period designated in an order under this chapter during which the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempted transaction by or for the account of the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer that is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken as a participant in the distribution. For the purposes of a nonissuer transaction, all outstanding securities of the same class identified in the registration statement as a security registered under this chapter are considered to be registered while the registration statement is effective. If any securities of the same class are outstanding, a registration statement may not be withdrawn until one year after its effective date. A registration statement may be withdrawn only with the approval of the Administrator.

(i) Periodic reports. While a registration statement is effective, a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require the person that filed the registration statement to file reports, not more often than quarterly, to keep the information or other record in the registration statement reasonably current and to disclose the progress of the offering.

(j) Posteffective amendments. A registration statement may be amended after its effective date. The posteffective amendment becomes effective when the Administrator so orders. If a posteffective amendment is made to increase the number of securities specified to be offered or sold, the person filing the amendment shall pay a registration fee calculated in the manner specified in Section 75-71-310, with respect to the additional securities proposed to be offered. A posteffective amendment relates back to the date of the offering of the additional securities being registered if, within one year after the date of the sale, the amendment is filed and the additional registration fee is paid.

§75-71- 306. Denial, Suspension, and Revocation of Securities Registration.

(a) Stop orders. The Administrator may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, a registration statement if the Administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

(1) the registration statement as of its effective date or before the effective date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, an amendment under Section 75-71-305(j) as of its effective date, or a report under Section 75-72-305(i), is incomplete in a material respect or contains a statement that, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, was false or misleading with respect to a material fact;

(2) this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or a condition imposed under this Act has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering, by the person filing the registration statement; by the issuer, a partner, officer, or director of the issuer or a person having a similar status or performing a similar function; a promoter of the issuer; or a person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer; but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer; or by an underwriter;

(3) the security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of a permanent or temporary injunction of a court of competent jurisdiction or an administrative stop order or similar order issued under any federal, foreign, or state law other than this Act applicable to the offering, but the Administrator may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this subsection more than one year after the date of the order or injunction on which it is based, and the Administrator may not issue an order under this subsection on the basis of an order or injunction issued under the securities act of another State unless the order or injunction was based on conduct that would constitute, as of the date of the order, a ground for a stop order under this Section;

(4) the issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities that are unlawful where performed;

(5) with respect to a security sought to be registered under Section 75-71-303, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by Section 75-71-303(b)(4);

(6) the applicant or registrant has not paid the filing fee, but the Administrator shall void the order if the deficiency is corrected; or

(7) the offering:

(A) will work or tend to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(B) has been or would be made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions, or other compensation, or promoters' profits or participations, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options; or

(C) is being made on terms that are unfair, unjust, or inequitable.

(b) Enforcement of subsection (a)(7). To the extent practicable, the Administrator by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter shall publish standards that provide notice of conduct that violates subsection (a)(7).

(c) Institution of stop order. The Administrator may not institute a stop order proceeding against an effective registration statement on the basis of conduct or a transaction known to the Administrator when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within thirty (30) days after the registration statement became effective.

(d) Summary process. The Administrator may summarily revoke, deny, postpone, or suspend the effectiveness of a registration statement pending final determination of an administrative proceeding. Upon the issuance of the order, the Administrator, in accordance with Section 75-71-611, shall promptly notify each person specified in subsection (e) that the order has been issued, the reasons for the revocation, denial, postponement, or suspension, and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a request in a record from the person the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a hearing is not requested and none is ordered by the Administrator, within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the Administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing for each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend the order until final determination.

(e) Procedural requirements for stop order. A stop order may not be issued under this Section without:

(1) appropriate notice, in accordance with Section 75-51-611, to the applicant or registrant, the issuer, and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered;

(2) an opportunity for hearing; and

(3) findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the Administrative Hearing Procedures set forth in the rules.

(f) Modification or vacation of stop order. The Administrator may modify or vacate a stop order issued under this Section if the Administrator finds that the conditions that caused its issuance have changed or that it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

§ 75-71-310. Filing Fees.

(a) Required Fees for Notice Filing for federal covered securities under Section 18(b)(2). The initial filing fee for a notice filing with respect to a federal covered security described in subsection (a) of Section 75-71-302 is one-tenth (1/10th) of one percent (1%) of the dollar amount of the offering to be registered with a minimum fee of ~~$150~~ Three Hundred Dollars ($300) and a maximum fee of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000). § 75-71-307. Waiver and Modification.

The Administrator may waive or modify, in whole or in part, any or all of the requirements of Sections 75-71-302, 75-71-303, and 75-71-304(b) or the requirement of any information or record in a registration statement or in a periodic report filed pursuant to Section 75-71-305(i).

(d) Limit on affiliations. An individual may transact business as an investment adviser representative for more than one investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser unless a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter prohibits or limits an individual from acting as an investment adviser representative for more than one investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser.

§75-71-405. Federal Covered Investment Adviser Notice Filing Requirement.

 - (B) institutional investors;
 - (C) bona fide preexisting clients whose principal places of residence are not in this State; or
 - (D) other clients specified by rule adopted or order issued under this Act;

(d) Effectiveness of filing. The notice under subsection (c) becomes effective upon its filing.

§ 75-71-406. Registration by Broker-Dealer, Agent, Investment Adviser, and Investment Adviser Representative.

(a) Application for initial registration. A person shall register as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative by filing an application and a consent to service of process complying with Section 75-71-611, and paying the fee specified in Section 75-410 and any reasonable fees charged by the designee of the Administrator for processing the filing. The application must contain:

- (1) the information or record required for the filing of a uniform application; and
- (2) upon request by the Administrator, any other financial or other information or record that the Administrator determines is appropriate.

(b) Amendment. If the information or record contained in an application filed under subsection (a) is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in a material respect, the registrant shall promptly file a correcting amendment.

(c) Effectiveness of registration. If an order is not in effect and a proceeding is not pending under Section 75-71-412, registration becomes effective at noon on the 45th day after a completed application is filed, unless the registration is denied. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may set an earlier effective date or may defer the effective date until noon on the 45th day after the filing of any amendment completing the application.

(d) Registration renewal. A registration is effective until midnight on December 31 of the year for which the application for registration is filed. Unless an order is in effect under Section 75-71-412, a registration may be automatically renewed each year by filing such records as are required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, by paying the fee specified in Section 75-71-410, and by paying costs charged by the designee of the Administrator for processing the filings.

(e) Additional conditions or waivers. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may impose such other conditions, not inconsistent with the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996. An order issued under this chapter may waive, in whole or in part, specific requirements in connection with registration as are in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

§ 75-71-407. Succession and Change in Registration of Broker-Dealer or Investment Adviser.

(a) Succession. A broker-dealer or investment adviser may succeed to the current registration of another broker-dealer or investment adviser or a notice filing of a federal covered investment adviser, and a federal covered investment adviser may succeed to the current registration of an investment adviser or notice filing of another federal covered investment adviser, by filing as a successor an application for registration pursuant to Section 75-71-401 or 75-71-403 or a notice pursuant to Section 75-71-405 for the unexpired portion of the current registration or notice filing.

(b) Organizational change. A broker-dealer or investment adviser that changes its form of organization or State of incorporation or organization may continue its registration by filing an amendment to its registration if the change does not involve a material change in its financial condition or management. The amendment becomes effective when filed or on a date designated by the registrant in its filing. The new organization is a successor to the original registrant for the purposes of this Act. If there is a material change in financial condition or management, the broker-dealer or investment adviser shall file a new application for registration. A predecessor registered under this Act shall stop conducting its securities business other than winding down transactions and shall file for withdrawal of broker-dealer or investment adviser registration within forty-five (45) days after filing its amendment to effect succession.

(c) Name change. A broker-dealer or investment adviser that changes its name may continue its registration by filing an amendment to its registration. The amendment becomes effective when filed or on a date designated by the registrant.

(d) Change of control. A change of control of a broker-dealer or investment adviser may be made in accordance with a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter.

If the registrant learns that the broker-dealer, issuer, investment adviser, or federal covered investment adviser has not filed the notice, the registrant may do so.

(b) Transfer of employment or association. If an agent registered under this chapter terminates employment by or association with a broker-dealer registered under this chapter and begins employment by or association with another broker-dealer registered under this chapter; or if an investment adviser representative registered under this chapter terminates employment by or association with an investment adviser registered under this chapter; or a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 75-71-405 and begins employment by or association with another investment adviser registered under this chapter or a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 75-71-405; then upon the filing by or on behalf of the registrant, within thirty (30) days after the termination, of an application for registration that complies with the requirement of Section 75-71-406(a) and payment of the filing fee required under Section 75-71-410, the registration of the agent or investment adviser representative is:

(1) immediately effective as of the date of the completed filing, if the agent's Central Registration Depository record or successor record or the investment adviser representative's Investment Adviser Registration Depository record or successor record does not contain a new or amended disciplinary disclosure within the previous twelve (12) months; or

(2) temporarily effective as of the date of the completed filing, if the agent's Central Registration Depository record or successor record or the investment adviser representative's Investment Adviser Registration Depository record or successor record contains a new or amended disciplinary disclosure within the preceding twelve (12) months.

(c) Withdrawal of temporary registration. The Administrator may withdraw a temporary registration if there are or were grounds for discipline as specified in Section 75-71-412 and the Administrator does so within thirty (30) days after the filing of the application. If the Administrator does not withdraw the temporary registration within the thirty (30) day period, registration becomes automatically effective on the 31st day after filing.

(d) Power to prevent registration. The Administrator may prevent the effectiveness of a transfer of an agent or investment adviser representative under subsection (b)(1) or (2) based on the public interest and the protection of investors.

(e) Termination of registration or application for registration. If the Administrator determines that a registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to act as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, or is the subject of an adjudication of incapacity or is subject to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian, or cannot reasonably be located, a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require the registration be canceled or terminated or the application denied. The Administrator may reinstate a canceled or terminated registration, with or without hearing, and may make the registration retroactive.

§ 75-71-409. Withdrawal of Registration of Broker-Dealer, Agent, Investment Adviser, and Investment Adviser Representative.

Withdrawal of registration by a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative becomes effective sixty (60) days after the filing of the application to withdraw or within any shorter period as provided by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending, withdrawal becomes effective when and upon such conditions as required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter. The Administrator may institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under Section 75-71-412 within one year after the withdrawal became effective automatically and issue a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective if a proceeding is not pending.

§ 75-71-410. Filing Fees.

(a) Fee established by Administrator. The Administrator shall establish fees by rule pursuant to the Mississippi Administrative Procedures Law for:

(1) an initial filing of an application as a broker-dealer and renewal of an application by a broker-dealer for registration;

(2) an application for registration as an agent and renewal of registration as an agent;

(3) an application for registration as an investment adviser and renewal of registration as an investment.

(4) an application for registration as an investment adviser representative, a renewal of registration as an investment adviser representative, and a change of registration as an investment adviser representative; and

(5) an initial fee and annual notice fee for a federal covered investment adviser required to file a notice under Section 75-71-405.

(b) Payment. A person required to pay a filing or notice fee under this Section may transmit the fee through or to a designee as a rule or order provides under this Act.

~~(c) Dual agent/investment adviser representative. An investment adviser representative who is registered as an agent under Section 75-71-402 and who represents a person that is both registered as a broker-dealer under Section 75-71-401 and registered as an investment adviser under Section 75-71-403 or required as a federal covered investment adviser to make a notice filing under Section 75-71-405 is not required to pay an initial or annual registration fee for registration as an investment adviser representative.~~

§ 75-71-411. Postregistration Requirements.

(a) Financial requirements. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may establish minimum financial requirements for broker-dealers registered or required to be registered under this chapter and investment advisers registered or required to be registered under this chapter.

(b) Financial reports. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222(b) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), a broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this chapter and an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this chapter shall file such financial reports as are required by a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter. If the information contained in a record filed under this subsection is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in a material respect, the registrant shall promptly file a correcting amendment.

(c) Recordkeeping. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22):

(1) a broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this Act and an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this chapter shall make and maintain the accounts, correspondence, memoranda, papers, books, and other records required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter;

(2) broker-dealer records required to be maintained under subsection (1) may be maintained in any form of data storage acceptable under Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78q(a)) if they are readily accessible to the Administrator; and

(3) investment adviser records required to be maintained under subsection (1) may be maintained in any form of data storage required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter.

(d) Audits or inspections. The records of a broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this chapter and of an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this chapter are subject to such reasonable periodic, special, or other audits or inspections by a representative of the Administrator, within or without this State, as the Administrator considers necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors. An audit or inspection may be made at any time and without prior notice. The Administrator may copy, and remove for audit or inspection copies of, all records the Administrator reasonably considers necessary or appropriate to conduct the audit or inspection. The Administrator may assess a reasonable charge for conducting an audit or inspection under this subsection.

(e) Custody and discretionary authority bond or insurance. Subject to the limitations of Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), the Administrator may by rule require a broker-dealer or investment adviser that has custody of or discretionary authority over funds or securities of a customer or client to obtain insurance or post a bond or other satisfactory form of security in an amount as prescribed by rule. The Administrator may determine the requirements of the insurance, bond, or other satisfactory form of security. Insurance or a bond or other satisfactory form of security may not be required of a broker-dealer registered under this chapter whose net capital exceeds, or of an investment adviser registered under this chapter whose minimum financial requirements exceed, the amounts required by rule or order under this chapter. The insurance, bond, or other satisfactory form of security must permit an action by a person to enforce any liability on the insurance, bond, or other satisfactory form of security if instituted within the time limitations in Section 75-71-509(j)(2).

(f) Requirements for custody. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), an agent may not have custody of funds or securities of a customer except under the supervision of a broker-dealer and an investment adviser representative may not have custody of funds or securities of a client except under the supervision of an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may prohibit, limit, or impose conditions on a broker-dealer regarding custody of funds or securities of a customer and on an investment adviser regarding custody of securities or funds of a client.

(g) Investment adviser brochure rule. With respect to an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this chapter, a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require that information or other record be furnished or disseminated to clients or prospective clients in this State as necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and advisory clients.

(h) Continuing education. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require an individual registered under Section 75-71-402 or Section 75-71-404 to participate in a continuing education program approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission and administered by a self-regulatory organization or, in the absence of such a program, a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require continuing education for an individual registered under Section 75-71-404.

§ 75-71-412. Denial, Revocation, Suspension, Withdrawal, Restriction, Condition, or Limitation of Registration.

(a) Disciplinary conditions-applicants. If the Administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (d) authorizes the action, an order issued under this chapter may deny an application, or may condition or limit registration of an applicant to be a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, and, if the applicant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, director, or person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control, of the broker-dealer or investment adviser.

(b) Disciplinary conditions-registrants. If the Administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (d) authorizes the action, an order issued under this chapter may revoke, suspend, condition, or limit the registration of a registrant and, if the registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, director, or person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control, of the broker-dealer or investment adviser. However, the Administrator may not:

(1) institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under this subsection based on an order issued under a law of another State that is reported to the Administrator or a designee of the Administrator more than one year after the date of the order on which it is based; or

(2) under subsection (d)(5)(A) or (B), issue an order on the basis of an order issued under the securities act of another State unless the other order was based on conduct for which subsection (d) would authorize the action had the conduct occurred in this State.

(c) Disciplinary penalties-registrants. If the Administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (d)(1) through (6), (8), (9), (10), (12) or (13) authorizes the action, an order under this chapter may censure, impose a bar, or impose a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed a maximum of the amount specified in Section 75-71-613 for each violation on a registrant, and, if the registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, a partner, officer, director, or person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control, of the broker-dealer or investment adviser.

(d) Grounds for discipline. A person may be disciplined under subsections (a) through (c) if the person:

(1) has filed an application for registration in this State under this chapter or the predecessor act within the previous ten (10) years, which, as of the effective date of registration or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained a statement that, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, was false or misleading with respect to a material fact;

(2) willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with this chapter or the predecessor act or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or the predecessor act within the previous ten (10) years;

(3) has been convicted of a felony or within the previous ten (10) years has been convicted of a misdemeanor involving a security, a commodity future or option contract, or an aspect of a business involving securities, commodities, investments, franchises, insurance, banking, or finance;

(4) is enjoined or restrained by a court of competent jurisdiction in an action instituted by the Administrator under this chapter or the predecessor act, a State, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the United States from engaging in or continuing an act, practice, or course of business involving an aspect of a business involving securities, commodities, investments, franchises, insurance, banking, or finance;

(5) is the subject of an order, issued after notice and opportunity for hearing by:

(A) the securities or other financial services regulator of a State or the Securities and Exchange Commission or other federal agency denying, revoking, barring, or suspending registration as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or investment adviser representative;

(B) the securities regulator of a State or the Securities and Exchange Commission against a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser representative, or federal covered investment adviser;

(C) the Securities and Exchange Commission or a self-regulatory organization suspending or expelling the registrant from membership in the self-regulatory organization;

(D) a court adjudicating a United States Postal Service fraud order;

(E) the insurance regulator of a State denying, suspending, or revoking registration as an insurance agent; or

(F) a depository institution or financial services regulator suspending or barring the person from the depository institution or other financial services business;

(6) is the subject of an adjudication or determination, after notice and opportunity for hearing, by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission; the Federal Trade Commission; a federal depository institution regulator, or a depository institution, insurance, or other financial services regulator of a State that the person willfully violated the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the Investment Company Act of 1940, or the Commodity Exchange Act, the securities or commodities law of a State, or a federal or state law under which a business involving investments, franchises, insurance, banking, or finance is regulated;

(7) is insolvent, either because the person's liabilities exceed the person's assets or because the person cannot meet the person's obligations as they mature, but the Administrator may not enter an order against an applicant or registrant under this subsection without a finding of insolvency as to the applicant or registrant;

(8) refuses to allow or otherwise impedes the Administrator from conducting an audit or inspection under Section 75-71-411(d) or refuses access to a registrant's office to conduct an audit or inspection under Section 75-71-411(d);

(9) has failed to reasonably supervise an agent, investment adviser representative, or other individual, if the agent, investment adviser representative, or other individual was subject to the person's supervision and committed a violation of this chapter or the predecessor act or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or the predecessor act within the previous ten (10) years;

(10) has not paid the proper filing fee within thirty (30) days after having been notified by the Administrator of a deficiency, but the Administrator shall vacate an order under this subsection when the deficiency is corrected;

(11) after notice and opportunity for a hearing, has been found within the previous ten (10) years:

(A) by a court of competent jurisdiction to have willfully violated the laws of a foreign jurisdiction under which the business of securities, commodities, investment, franchises, insurance, banking, or finance is regulated;

(B) to have been the subject of an order of a securities regulator of a foreign jurisdiction denying, revoking, or suspending the right to engage in the business of securities as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser representative, or similar person; or

(C) to have been suspended or expelled from membership by or participation in a securities exchange or securities association operating under the securities laws of a foreign jurisdiction;

(12) is the subject of a cease and desist order issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission or issued under the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance laws of a State;

(13) has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance business within the previous ten (10) years; or

(14) is not qualified on the basis of factors such as training, experience, and knowledge of the securities business. However, in the case of an application by an agent for a broker-dealer that is a member of a self-regulatory organization or by an individual for registration as an investment adviser representative, a denial order may not be based on this subsection if the individual has successfully completed all examinations required by subsection (e). The Administrator may require an applicant for registration under Section 75-71-402 or 75-71-404 who has not been registered in a State within the two (2) years preceding the filing of an application in this State to successfully complete an examination.

(e) Examinations. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require that an examination, including an examination developed or approved by an organization of securities regulators, be successfully completed by a class of individuals or all individuals. An order issued under this chapter may waive, in whole or in part, an examination as to an individual and a rule adopted under this chapter may waive, in whole or in part, an examination as to a class of individuals if the Administrator determines that the examination is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(f) Summary process. The Administrator may suspend or deny an application summarily; restrict, condition, limit, or suspend a registration; or censure, bar, or impose a civil penalty on a registrant before final determination of an administrative proceeding. Upon the issuance of an order, the Administrator shall promptly notify each person subject to the order that the order has been issued, the reasons for the action, and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a request in a record from the person the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a hearing is not requested and none is ordered by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the Administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend the order until final determination.

(g) Procedural requirements. An order issued may not be issued under this Section, except under subsection (f), without:

(1) appropriate notice to the applicant or registrant;

(2) opportunity for hearing; and

(3) findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the Administrative Hearing Procedures set forth in the rules.

(h) Control person liability. A person that controls, directly or indirectly, a person not in compliance with this Section may be disciplined by order of the Administrator under subsections (a) through (c) to the same extent as the noncomplying person, unless the controlling person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct that is a ground for discipline under this Section.

(i) Limit on investigation or proceeding. The Administrator may not institute a proceeding under subsection (a), (b), or (c) based solely on material facts actually known by the Administrator unless an investigation or the proceeding is instituted within one year after the Administrator actually acquires knowledge of the material facts.

Article 5 Fraud and Liabilities

§ 75-71-501. General Fraud.

It is unlawful for a person, in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of a security, directly or indirectly:

- (1) to employ a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
- (2) to make an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (3) to engage in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon another person.

§ 75-71-502. Prohibited Conduct in Providing Investment Advice.

(a) Fraud in providing investment advice. It is unlawful for a person that advises others for compensation, either directly or indirectly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities or that, for compensation and as part of a regular business, issues or promulgates analyses or reports relating to securities:

- (1) to employ a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud another person; or
- (2) to engage in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon another person.

(b) ~~Rules defining fraud. A rule adopted under this chapter may define an act, practice, or course of business of an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative, other than a supervised person of a federal covered investment adviser, as fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative, and prescribe means reasonably designed to prevent investment advisers and investment adviser representatives, other than supervised persons of a federal covered investment adviser, from engaging in acts, practices, and courses of business defined as fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative.~~

(e) Rules specifying contents of advisory contract. A rule adopted under this chapter may specify the contents of an investment advisory contract entered into, extended, or renewed by an investment adviser.

§ 75-71-503. Evidentiary Burden.

- (a) Civil. In a civil action or administrative proceeding under this chapter, a person claiming an exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion has the burden to prove the applicability of the claim.
- (b) Criminal. In a criminal proceeding under this chapter, a person claiming an exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion has the burden of going forward with evidence of the claim.

§ 75-71-504. Filing of Sales and Advertising Literature.

(a) Filing requirement. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require the filing of a prospectus, pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, sales literature, or other advertising record relating to a security or investment advice, addressed or intended for distribution to prospective investors, including clients or prospective clients of a person registered or required to be registered as an investment adviser under this chapter.

(b) Excluded communications. This Section does not apply to sales and advertising literature specified in subsection (a) which relates to a federal covered security, a federal covered investment adviser, or a security or transaction exempted by Section 75-71-201, Section 75-71-202, or Section 75-71-203 except as required pursuant to Section 75-71-201(7).

§ 75-71-505. Misleading Filings.

It is unlawful for a person to make or cause to be made, in a record that is used in an action or proceeding or filed under this chapter, a statement that, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, is false or misleading in a material respect, or, in connection with the statement, to omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statement made, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, not false or misleading.

§ 75-71-506. Misrepresentations Concerning Registration or Exemption.

The filing of an application for registration, a registration statement, a notice filing under this chapter, the registration of a person, the notice filing by a person, or the registration of a security under this chapter does not constitute a finding by the Administrator that a record filed under this chapter is true, complete, and not misleading. The filing or registration or the availability of an exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion for a security or a transaction does not mean that the Administrator has passed upon the merits or qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, a person, security, or transaction. It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to a purchaser, customer, client, or prospective customer or client a representation inconsistent with this Section.

§ 75-71-507. Qualified Immunity.

A broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or investment adviser representative is not liable to another broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or investment adviser representative for defamation relating to a statement that is contained in a record required by the Administrator, or designee of the Administrator, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization, unless the person knew, or should have known at the time that the statement was made, that it was false in a material respect or the person acted in reckless disregard of the statement's truth or falsity.

§ 75-71- 508. Criminal Penalties.

(a) Criminal penalties. A person that willfully violates this chapter ~~or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter,~~ except Section 75-71-504 or the notice filing requirements of Section 75-71-302 or Section 75-71-405, or that willfully violates Section 75-71-505 knowing the statement made to be false or misleading in a material respect, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than the amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 or imprisoned not more than five (5) years, or both. An individual convicted of violating a rule or order under this chapter may be fined, but may not be imprisoned, if the individual did not have knowledge of the rule or order. Each violation shall be considered as a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings.

(b) Criminal referral not required. The Attorney General with or without a referral from the Administrator, may institute criminal proceedings under this chapter. The attorneys duly employed by the Administrator may be appointed by the Attorney General or the proper prosecuting attorney or local district attorney to act as special prosecutors in criminal proceedings.

(c) No limitation on other criminal enforcement. This chapter does not limit the power of this State to punish a person for conduct that constitutes a crime under other laws of this State.

§ 75-71-509. Civil Liability.

(a) Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act. Enforcement of civil liability under this Section is subject to the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998.

(b) Liability of seller to purchaser. A person is liable to the purchaser if the person sells a security in violation of Section 75-71-301 or, by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, the purchaser not knowing the untruth or omission and the seller not sustaining the burden of proof that the seller did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care, could not have known of the untruth or omission. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

(1) The purchaser may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the security, less the amount of any income received on the security, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the purchase, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court, upon the tender of the security, or for actual damages as provided in subsection (3).

(2) The tender referred to in subsection (1) may be made any time before entry of judgment. Tender requires only notice in a record of ownership of the security and willingness to exchange the security for the amount specified. A purchaser that no longer owns the security may recover actual damages as provided in subsection (3).

(3) Actual damages in an action arising under this subsection are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the purchase, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court.

(c) Liability of purchaser to seller. A person is liable to the seller if the person buys a security by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, the seller not knowing of the untruth or omission, and the purchaser not sustaining the burden of proof that the purchaser did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care, could not have known of the untruth or omission. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

(1) The seller may maintain an action to recover the security, and any income received on the security, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court, upon the tender of the purchase price, or for actual damages as provided in subsection (3).

(2) The tender referred to in subsection (1) may be made any time before entry of judgment. Tender requires only notice in a record of the present ability to pay the amount tendered and willingness to take delivery of the security for the amount specified. If the purchaser no longer owns the security, the seller may recover actual damages as provided in subsection (3).

(3) Actual damages in an action arising under this subsection are the difference between the price at which the security was sold and the value the security would have had at the time of the sale in the absence of the purchaser's conduct causing liability, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the sale of the security, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court.

(d) Liability of unregistered broker-dealer and agent. A person acting as a broker-dealer or agent that sells or buys a security in violation of Section 75-71-401(a), 75-71-42(a), or Section 75-71-5006 is liable to the customer. The customer, if a purchaser, may maintain an action for recovery of actual damages as specified in subsections (b)(1) through (3), or, if a seller, for a remedy as specified in subsections (c)(1) through (3).

(e) Liability of unregistered investment adviser and investment adviser representative. A person acting as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative that provides investment advice for compensation in violation of Section 75-71-4003(a), Section 75-71-404(a), or Section 75-71-506 is liable to the client. The client may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the advice, interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court.

(f) Liability for investment advice. A person that receives directly or indirectly any consideration for providing investment advice to another person and that employs a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud the other person or engages in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit on the other person, is liable to the other person. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

(1) The person defrauded may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the advice and the amount of any actual damages caused by the fraudulent conduct, interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the fraudulent conduct, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court, less the amount of any income received as a result of the fraudulent conduct.

(2) This subsection does not apply to a broker-dealer or its agents if the investment advice provided is solely incidental to transacting business as a broker-dealer and no special compensation is received for the investment advice.

(g) Joint and several liability. The following persons are liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as persons liable under subsections (b) through (f):

(1) a person that directly or indirectly controls a person liable under subsections (b) through (f), unless the controlling person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist;

(2) an individual who is a managing partner, executive officer, or director of a person liable under subsections (b) through (f), including an individual having a similar status or performing similar functions, unless the individual sustains the burden of proof that the individual did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist;

(3) an individual who is an employee of or associated with a person liable under subsections (b) through (f) and who materially aids the conduct giving rise to the liability, unless the individual sustains the burden of proof that the individual did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist; and

(4) a person that is a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative that materially aids the conduct giving rise to the liability under subsections (b) through (f), unless the person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which liability is alleged to exist.

(h) Right of contribution. A person liable under this Section has a right of contribution as in cases of contract against any other person liable under this Section for the same conduct.

(i) Survival of cause of action. A cause of action under this Section survives the death of an individual who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(j) Statute of limitations. A person may not obtain relief:

(1) under subsection (b) for violation of Section 75-71-301, or under subsection (d) or (e), unless the action is instituted within one year after the violation occurred; or

(2) under subsection (b), other than for violation of Section 75-71-301, or under subsection (c) or (f), unless the action is instituted within the earlier of two (2) years after discovery of the facts constituting the violation or five (5) years after the violation.

(k) No enforcement of violative contract. A person that has made, or has engaged in the performance of, a contract in violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, or that has acquired a purported right under the contract with knowledge of conduct by reason of which its making or performance was in violation of this Act, may not base an action on the contract.

(l) No contractual waiver. A condition, stipulation, or provision binding a person purchasing or selling a security or receiving investment advice to waive compliance with this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act is void.

(m) Survival of other rights or remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this Act are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist, but this Act does not create a cause of action not specified in this Section or Section 75-71-411(e).

§ 75-71-510. Rescission Offers.

A purchaser of a security, seller of a security, or recipient of investment advice may not maintain an action under Section 75-71-509 if:

(1) The purchaser of a security, seller of a security, or recipient of investment advice receives in a record, before the action is instituted:

(B) if the basis for relief under this Section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(b), an offer to repurchase the security for cash, payable on delivery of the security, equal to the consideration paid, and interest at six percent (6%) from the date of the purchase, less the amount of any income received on the security, or, if the purchaser no longer owns the security, an offer to pay the purchaser upon acceptance of the offer damages in an amount that would be recoverable upon a tender, less the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, and interest at the eight percent (8%) interest from the date of the purchase in cash equal to the damages computed in the manner provided in this subsection;

(C) if the basis for relief under this Section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(c), an offer to tender the security, on payment by the seller of an amount equal to the purchase price paid, less income received on the security by the purchaser and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the sale; or if the purchaser no longer owns the security, an offer to pay the seller upon acceptance of the offer, in cash, damages in the amount of the difference between the price at which the security was purchased and the value the security would have had at the time of the purchase in the absence of the purchaser's conduct that may have caused liability and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the sale;

(D) if the basis for relief under this Section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(d); and if the customer is a purchaser, an offer to pay as specified in subsection (B); or, if the customer is a seller, an offer to tender or to pay as specified in subsection (C);

(2) the offer under subsection (1) states that it must be accepted by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice within thirty (30) days after the date of its receipt by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice or any shorter period, of not less than three (3) days, that the Administrator, by order, specifies;

(3) the offeror has the present ability to pay the amount offered or to tender the security under subsection (1);

Article 6 Administration and Judicial Review

§ 75-71-601. Administration.

(a) Administration. The Administrator shall administer this Act.

(b) Unlawful use of records or information. It is unlawful for the Administrator or an officer, employee, or designee of the Administrator to use for personal benefit or the benefit of others records or other information obtained by or filed with the Administrator that are not public under Section 75-71-607(b). This Act does not authorize the Administrator or an officer, employee, or designee of the Administrator to disclose the record or information, except in accordance with Section 75-71-602, 75-71-607(c), or 75-71-608.

(c) No privilege or exemption created or diminished. This Act does not create or diminish a privilege or exemption that exists at common law, by statute or rule, or otherwise.

(d) Investor education. The Administrator may develop and implement investor education initiatives to inform the public about investing in securities, with particular emphasis on the prevention and detection of securities fraud. In developing and implementing these initiatives, the Administrator may collaborate with public and nonprofit organizations with an interest in investor education. The Administrator may accept a grant or donation from a person that is not affiliated with the securities industry or from a nonprofit organization, regardless of whether the organization is affiliated with the securities industry, to develop and implement investor education initiatives. This subsection does not authorize the Administrator to require participation or monetary contributions of a registrant in an investor education program.

§75-71- 602. Investigations and Subpoenas.

(a) Authority to investigate. The Administrator may:

(1) conduct public or private investigations within or outside of this State which the Administrator considers necessary or appropriate to determine whether a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, or to aid in the enforcement of this Act or in the adoption of rules and forms under this Act;

(2) require or permit a person to testify, file a statement, or produce a record, under oath or otherwise as the Administrator determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning a matter to be investigated or about which an action or proceeding is to be instituted; and

(3) publish a record concerning an action, proceeding, or an investigation under, or a violation of, this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act if the Administrator determines it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(b) Administrator powers to investigate. For the purpose of an investigation under this chapter, the Administrator or its designated officer may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, seek compulsion of attendance, take evidence, require the filing of statements, and require the production of any records that the Administrator considers relevant or material to the investigation.

(c) Procedure and remedies for noncompliance. If a person does not appear or refuses to testify, file a statement, produce records, or otherwise does not obey a subpoena as required by the Administrator under this chapter, the Administrator may ~~refer the matter to the Attorney General, who may~~ apply to the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi or a court of another State to enforce compliance. The court may:

(1) hold the person in contempt;

(2) order the person to appear before the Administrator;

(3) order the person to testify about the matter under investigation or in question;

(4) order the production of records;

(5) grant injunctive relief, including restricting or prohibiting the offer or sale of securities or the providing of investment advice;

~~(6) impose a civil penalty of the amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation;~~
and

(6) grant any other necessary or appropriate relief.

(d) Application for relief. This Section does not preclude a person from applying to the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi or a court of another State for relief from a request to appear, testify, file a statement, produce records, or obey a subpoena.

(e) Use immunity procedure. An individual is not excused from attending, testifying, filing a statement, producing a record or other evidence, or obeying a subpoena of the Administrator under this chapter or in an action or proceeding instituted by the Administrator under this chapter on the ground that the required testimony, statement, record, or other evidence, directly or indirectly, may tend to incriminate the individual or subject the individual to a criminal fine, penalty, or forfeiture. If the individual refuses to testify, file a statement, or produce a record or other evidence on the basis of the individual's privilege against self-incrimination, the Administrator may apply the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi to compel the testimony, the filing of the statement, the production of the record, or the giving of other evidence. The testimony, record, or other evidence compelled under such an order may not be used, directly or indirectly, against the individual in a criminal case, except in a prosecution for perjury or contempt or otherwise failing to comply with the order.

(f) Assistance to securities regulator of another jurisdiction. At the request of the securities regulator of another State or a foreign jurisdiction, the Administrator may provide assistance if the requesting regulator states that it is conducting an investigation to determine whether a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate a law or rule of the other State or foreign jurisdiction relating to securities matters that the requesting regulator administers or enforces. The Administrator may provide the assistance by using the authority to investigate and the powers conferred by this Section as the Administrator determines is necessary or appropriate. The assistance may be provided without regard to whether the conduct described in the request would also constitute a violation of this Act or other law of this State if occurring in this State. In deciding whether to provide the assistance, the Administrator may consider whether the requesting regulator is permitted and has agreed to provide assistance reciprocally within its State or foreign jurisdiction to the Administrator on securities matters when requested; whether compliance with the request would violate or prejudice the public policy of this State; and the availability of resources and employees of the Administrator to carry out the request for assistance.

§ 75-71-603. Civil Enforcement.

(a) Civil action instituted by Administrator. If the Administrator believes that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or that a person has, is, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business that materially aids a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, the Administrator may maintain an action in chancery court to enjoin the act, practice, or course of business and to enforce compliance with this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(b) Relief available. In an action under this Section and on a proper showing, the court may:

(1) issue a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or declaratory judgment;

(2) order other appropriate or ancillary relief, which may include:

(A) an asset freeze, accounting, writ of attachment, writ of general or specific execution, and appointment of a receiver or conservator, that may be the Administrator, for the defendant or the defendant's assets;

(B) ordering the Administrator to take charge and control of a defendant's property, including investment accounts and accounts in a depository institution, rents, and profits; to collect debts; and to acquire and dispose of property;

(C) imposing a civil penalty of the amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation; an order of rescission, restitution, or disgorgement directed to a person that has engaged in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or the predecessor act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or the predecessor act; and

(D) ordering the payment of prejudgment and postjudgment interest; or

(3) order such other relief as the court considers appropriate.

(c) No bond required. The Administrator may not be required to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this Act.

§75-71- 604. Administrative Enforcement.

(a) Issuance of an order or notice. If the Administrator determines that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially aid an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, the Administrator may:

(1) issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act, practice, or course of business or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with this Act;

(2) issue an order denying, suspending, revoking, or conditioning the exemptions for a broker-dealer under Section 75-71-401(b)(1)(D) or (F) or an investment adviser under Section 75-71-403(b)(1)(C); or

(3) issue an order:

(A) under Section 75-71-204;

(B) imposing a civil penalty in the case of an issuer of registered securities, broker-dealer, investment advisor, agent, investment adviser representative, or other person who violated this chapter;

(C) barring or suspending the person from association with a broker-dealer or investment advisor registered in this State; or

(D) requiring the person to pay restitution for any loss or disgorge any profits arising from the violation, including interest.

(b) Summary process. An order under subsection (a) is effective on the date of issuance. Upon issuance of the order, the Administrator shall promptly serve each person subject to the order with a copy of the order and a notice that the order has been entered, in accordance with Section 75-71-611. The order must include a statement of any civil penalty or other administrative remedy to be imposed under subsection (a) or costs of investigation the Administrator will seek, a statement of the reasons for the order, and notice that, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a request in a record from the person, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order, including the imposition of a civil penalty or other administrative remedy to be imposed under subsection (a) or requirement for payment of the costs of investigation if a civil penalty or costs were sought in the statement accompanying the order, becomes final as to that person by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the Administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

(c) Procedure for final order. If a hearing is requested or ordered pursuant to subsection (b), a hearing must be held pursuant to the Administrative Hearing Procedures set forth in the rules. A final order may not be issued unless the Administrator makes findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with Administrative Hearing Procedures set forth in the rules. The final order may make final, vacate, or modify the order issued under subsection (a).

(d) Civil penalty. In a final order under subsection (c), the Administrator may impose a civil penalty in an amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation and each violation shall be considered a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings.

(e) Costs. In a final order, the Administrator may charge the actual cost of an investigation or proceeding for a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(f) Filing of certified final order with court; effect of filing. If a petition for judicial review of a final order is not filed in accordance with Section 75-71-609, or the petition is denied by the Court, the Administrator may file a certified copy of the final order with the clerk of a court of in the jurisdiction where enforcement will be sought. The order so filed has the same effect as a judgment of the court and may be recorded, enforced, or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of the court.

(g) Enforcement by court; further civil penalty. If a person does not comply with an order under this Section, the Administrator may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order and collect administrative civil penalties and costs imposed under the final order. The court may not require the Administrator to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this Section. If the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstances.

§75-71- 605. Rules, Forms, Orders, Interpretative Opinions, and Hearings.

(a) Issuance and adoption of forms, orders, and rules. The Administrator may:

(1) issue forms and orders and, after notice and comment, may adopt and amend rules necessary or appropriate to carry out this Act and may repeal rules, including rules and forms governing registration statements, applications, notice filings, reports, and other records;

(2) by rule, define terms, whether or not used in this Act, but those definitions may not be inconsistent with this Act; and

(3) by rule, classify securities, persons, and transactions and adopt different requirements for different classes. Offers to other persons as described in Section 75-71-202(13)(C) exempted by rule adopted under this chapter or order issued under this chapter may be conditioned by rule or order and any rule adopted as provided in Section 75-71-203 to provide an additional exemption from registration may include conditions on such exemption.

(b) Findings and cooperation. Under this Act, a rule or form may not be adopted or amended, or an order issued or amended, unless the Administrator finds that the rule, form, order, or amendment is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and is consistent with the purposes intended by this Act. In adopting, amending, and repealing rules and forms, Section 75-71-608 applies in order to achieve uniformity among the States and coordination with federal laws in the form and content of registration statements, applications, reports, and other records, including the adoption of uniform rules, forms, and procedures.

(c) Financial statements. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the Administrator may require that a financial statement filed under this Act be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States and comply with other requirements specified by rule adopted or order issued under this Act. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may establish:

(1) subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the form and content of financial statements required under this Act;

(2) whether unconsolidated financial statements must be filed; and

(3) whether required financial statements must be audited by an independent certified public accountant.

(d) Interpretative opinions. The Administrator may provide interpretative opinions or issue determinations that the Administrator will not institute a proceeding or an action under this Act against a specified person for engaging in a specified act, practice, or course of business if the determination is consistent with this Act. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may establish a reasonable charge for interpretative opinions or determinations that the Administrator will not institute an action or a proceeding under this Act.

(e) Effect of compliance. A penalty under this Act may not be imposed for, and liability does not arise from conduct that is engaged in or omitted in good faith believing it conforms to a rule, form, or order of the Administrator under this Act.

(f) Presumption for public hearings. A hearing in an administrative proceeding under this Act must be conducted in public unless the Administrator for good cause consistent with this Act determines that the hearing will not be so conducted.

§ 75-71-606. Administrative Files and Opinions.

(a) Public register of filings. The Administrator shall maintain, or designate a person to maintain, a register of applications for registration of securities; registration statements; notice filings; applications for registration of broker-dealers, agents, investment advisers, and investment adviser representatives; notice filings by federal covered investment advisers that are or have been effective under this Act or the predecessor act; notices of claims of exemption from registration or notice filing requirements contained in a record; orders issued under this Act or the predecessor act; and interpretative opinions or no action determinations issued under this Act.

(b) Public availability. The Administrator shall make all rules, forms, interpretative opinions, and orders available to the public.

(c) Copies of public records. The Administrator shall furnish a copy of a record that is a public record or a certification that the public record does not exist to a person that so requests. A rule adopted under this Act may establish a reasonable charge for furnishing the record or certification. A copy of the record certified or a certificate by the Administrator of a record's nonexistence is prima facie evidence of a record or its nonexistence.

§ 75-71-607. Public Records; Confidentiality.

(a) Presumption of public records. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), records obtained by the Administrator or filed under this Act, including a record contained in or filed with a registration statement, application, notice filing, or report, are public records and are available for public examination under such rules as the Administrator prescribes.

(b) Nonpublic records. The following records are not public records and are not available for public examination under subsection (a):

(3) a record that is not required to be provided to the Administrator or filed under this Act and is provided to the Administrator only on the condition that the record will not be subject to public examination or disclosure;

(4) a nonpublic record received from a person specified in Section 75-71-608(a);

(5) any social security number, residential address unless used as a business address, and residential telephone number unless used as a business telephone number, contained in a record that is filed; and

(6) a record obtained by the Administrator through a designee of the Administrator that a rule or order under this Act determines has been:

(A) expunged from the Administrator's records by the designee; or

(B) determined to be nonpublic or nondisclosable by that designee if the Administrator finds the determination to be in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(c) Administrator discretion to disclose. If disclosure is for the purpose of a civil, administrative, or criminal investigation, action, or proceeding or to a person specified in Section 75-71-608(a), the Administrator may disclose a record obtained in connection with an audit or inspection under Section 75-71-411(d) or a record obtained in connection with an investigation under Section 75-71-602.

§ 75-72- 608. Uniformity and Cooperation with Other Agencies.

(a) Objective of uniformity. The Administrator may, in its discretion, cooperate, coordinate, consult, and, subject to Section 75-71-607, share records and information with the securities regulator of another State, Canada, a Canadian province or territory, a foreign jurisdiction, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the United States Department of Justice, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, a self-regulatory organization, a national or international organization of securities regulators, a federal or state banking or insurance regulator, and a governmental law enforcement or regulatory agency to effectuate greater uniformity in securities matters among the federal government, self-regulatory organizations, States, and foreign governments.

(b) Policies to consider. In cooperating, coordinating, consulting, and sharing records and information under this Section and in acting by rule, order, or waiver under this Act, the Administrator shall, in its discretion, take into consideration in carrying out the public interest the following general policies:

- (1) maximizing effectiveness of regulation for the protection of investors;
- (2) maximizing uniformity in federal and state regulatory standards; and
- (3) minimizing burdens on the business of capital formation, without adversely affecting essentials of investor protection.

(c) Subjects for cooperation. The cooperation, coordination, consultation, and sharing of records and information authorized by this Section includes:

§ 75-71-609. Judicial Review.

(a) Petition for judicial review of order; venue; scope of review. Any person aggrieved by a final order of the Administrator may obtain a review of the order in the chancery court of the first judicial district of Hinds County, Mississippi, by filing in court, within sixty (60) days after the entry of the order, a written petition praying that the order be modified or set aside in whole or in part. A copy of the petition shall be forthwith served upon the Administrator and thereupon the Administrator shall certify and file in court a copy of the filing and evidence upon which the order was entered. When these have been filed, the court has exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, enforce or set aside the order, in whole or in part. The findings of the Administrator as to the facts, if supported by competent material and substantial evidence, are conclusive.

(b) Adduction of additional evidence If either party applies to the court for leave to adduce additional material evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the Administrator, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken before the Administrator and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such conditions as the court considers proper. The Administrator may modify his findings and order by reason of the additional evidence and shall file in court the additional evidence together with any modified or new findings or order.

(b) Purchases and offers to purchase. Sections 75-71-401(a), 75-71-402(a), 75-71-403(a), 75-71-404(a), 75-71-501, 75-71-506, 75-71-509, and 75-71-510 do not apply to a person that purchases or offers to purchase a security unless the offer to purchase or the purchase is made in this State or the offer to sell or the sale is made and accepted in this State.

(c) Offers in this State. For the purpose of this Section, an offer to sell or to purchase a security is made in this State, whether or not either party is then present in this State, if the offer:

- (1) originates from within this State; or
- (2) is directed by the offeror to a place in this State and received at the place to which it is directed.

(d) Acceptances in this State. For the purpose of this Section, an offer to purchase or to sell is accepted in this State, whether or not either party is then present in this State, if the acceptance:

- (1) is communicated to the offeror in this State and the offeree reasonably believes the offeror to be present in this State and the acceptance is received at the place in this State to which it is directed; and
- (2) has not previously been communicated to the offeror, orally or in a record, outside this State.

(e) Publications, radio, television, or electronic communications. An offer to sell or to purchase is not made in this State when a publisher circulates or there is circulated on the publisher's behalf in this State a bona fide newspaper or other publication of general, regular, and paid circulation that is not published in this State, or that is published in this State but has had more than two thirds (2/3) of its circulation outside this State during the previous twelve (12) months or when a radio or television program or other electronic communication originating outside this State is received in this State. A radio or television program, or other electronic communication is considered as having originated in this State if either the broadcast studio or the originating source of transmission is located in this State, unless:

§ 75-71-611. Service of Process.

(a) Signed consent to service of process. A consent to service of process complying with this Section required by this Act must be signed and filed in the form required by a rule or order under this Act. A person that has filed a consent complying with this subsection in connection with a previous application for registration or notice filing need not file an additional consent.

(b) Conduct constituting appointment of agent for service. If a person, including a nonresident of this State, engages in an act, practice, or course of business prohibited or made actionable by this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act and the person has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection (a), the act, practice, or course of business constitutes the appointment of the Administrator as the person's agent for service of process in a noncriminal action or proceeding against the person or the person's successor or personal representative.

(c) Procedure for service of process. Service under subsection (a) or (b) may be made by providing a copy of the process to the office of the Administrator, but it is not effective unless:

Exhibit C
to the December 3, 2008 Minutes of Securities Law Study Group, Meeting #5

MISSISSIPPI SECRETARY OF STATE
SECURITIES LAWS STUDY GROUP
RECOMMENDATION TO ADOPT THE MISSISSIPPI
SECURITIES ACT OF 2009
December 3, 2008

The Secretary of State Securities Laws Study Group hereby recommends that the Secretary and the Legislature adopt the Uniform Securities Act of 2002 (the “USA”) as the proposed “Mississippi Securities Act of 2009” with the changes to the USA set forth below.

Article 1 General Provisions.

§ 75-71-102. Definitions.

- Revised definition of “Agent” in subsection (1) to more closely conform with Federal Securities Law definition of “Agent.”
- In subsection (28) the drafters of the USA left it up to the states to decide whether to include variable annuity contracts in the definition of a “Security.” The Group recommended to include them in the definition. Fixed annuity contracts continue to be excluded from the definition of security.

Article 2 Exemptions from Registration of Securities.

§ 75-71-201. Exempt Securities.

- Added oil and gas lease language from existing Securities Act to list of exempt securities (subsection (10)).

§ 75-71-202. Exempt Transactions.

- Clarified which transactions in the list of exempt transactions require approval from the Administrator or a notice filing and which ones are self-actuating.
- Revised limited offering transaction exemption in subsection (14) to change number of purchasers from 25 to 10 to conform with the number of purchasers in the limited offering transaction under existing law. This exemption in subsection (14) excludes accredited investors from the limit on the number of purchasers.

Article 3 Registration of Securities and Notice Filing of Federal Covered Securities.

§ 75-71-310. Filing Fees.

- Moved all filing fees for Article 3 to this new section and increased minimum filing fees and renewal fees from $150 under existing law to $300.
- Subsection (b). Late fee for notice filings for federal covered securities. The USA provides for the State to include a late fee. The amount of the late fee approved by the Study Group was inserted into subsection (b).

Article 4 Broker-Dealers, Agents, Investment Advisers, Investment Adviser Representatives, and Federal Covered Investment Advisers.

§ 75-71-410. Filing Fees.

- Moved all references to filing fees for Article 4 to this new section.
- Deleted language from this section that provided that persons who are registered as both an agent and an investment adviser representative (referred to as “dual” agents) only have to pay one filing fee to conform with existing law that requires separate filing fees for each type of professional registration.

Article 5 Fraud and Liabilities.

§ 75-71-502. Prohibited Conduct in Providing Investment Advice.

- Rules Defining Fraud. Deleted provision that authorized the Administrator to prescribe rules defining fraudulent behavior. The Group recommended this deletion because current law does not provide for judicial review of rule making decisions of a state agency. The Group was concerned about establishing certain actions as being criminally fraudulent behavior by adopting rules to that effect. It is the responsibility of the Legislature to determine actions that constitute crimes, not a state agency.

§ 75-71-508. Criminal Penalties.

- Deleted language in subsection (a) that provided for rules adopted pursuant to Section 75-71-502 to conform with the deletion of the provision concerning rules in Section 75-71-502.
- Added language to subsection (a) from existing law to the effect that each violation of the chapter is a separate offense.
- Added language to subsection (b) that permits attorneys employed by the Administrator to act as special prosecutors in criminal proceedings brought under the Act.

Article 6 Administration and Judicial Review.

§ 75-71-602. Investigations and Subpoenas.

- Deleted language from subsection (c) to conform provision with existing law.
- Deleted language concerning authorization to impose a civil penalty under subsection (c) to conform provision with existing law that does not authorize the imposition of a civil penalty.

§75-71- 604. Administrative Enforcement.

- Added language from existing law to subsection (a)(3)(B) to conform with existing law addressing ability of Administrator to assess civil penalties.
- Added additional administrative remedies to subsection (a)(3) that the Administrator can pursue in (C) and (D) including restitution for any loss and disgorgement of profits arising from the violation to enhance the enforcement powers of the Administrator.
- Clarified in subsection (g) that the court will enforce a final order by collecting any penalties or costs provided for in the final order.

§ 75-71-609. Judicial Review.

- Deleted language concerning judicial review of rules to conform with existing law (the Administrative Procedures Act) which does not provide for judicial review of rules.

§ 75-71-613. Amounts of Civil and Criminal Penalties.

- Moved all references to penalty amounts to this new section.
- Enhanced enforcement powers of the Administrator by adding additional penalties in subsections (d) and (e)(1) for violations of the act against the elderly or disabled persons.

Article 7 Transition.

§ 75-71-701. Effective Date.

§ 75-72-702. Repeals.

- Provides the current act to be repealed on December 31, 2009 and the new act to take effect on January 1, 2010.
