The Secretary of State's Office and the Attorney's General's office was called to see what needed to be done since it was a tie in the Republican Supervisor's District 4 Race and both cited Section 23.-15-601 of the Mississippi Code Section to follow. The tie in the Republican Supervisor's District 4 Race was decided by placing numbers 1-10 in a bowl and both candidates drew a number simultaneously. Mr. Lamar Beaty , of the Republican Party, explained to both candidates that the one that drew the highest number would be declared the winner. Tina Pullen drew the number 1 and Josh Russell drew the number 2. Josh Russell was declared the winner.
