If Your Objective is:

Capital Preservation
&
Income

This Fund Provides:

- A higher level of current income than typical money market investments
- A greater stability in principal value than that of long-term bonds
- A diversified portfolio of investment-grade debt instruments

Although diversification offers the benefit of spreading risk among asset classes, it should not be interpreted as a guarantee against investment loss or a promise of specific investment return. Securities and insurance products offered through Morgan Keegan are not FDIC insured, may lose value, and are not bank guaranteed.

1 Concentrate on Value

Credit fundamentals and relative value drive the investment decisions. The Fund's focus is on "undervalued" and "out-of-favor" sectors and securities, which still have solid credit fundamentals. The portfolio maintains balanced exposure across the investment-grade spectrum.

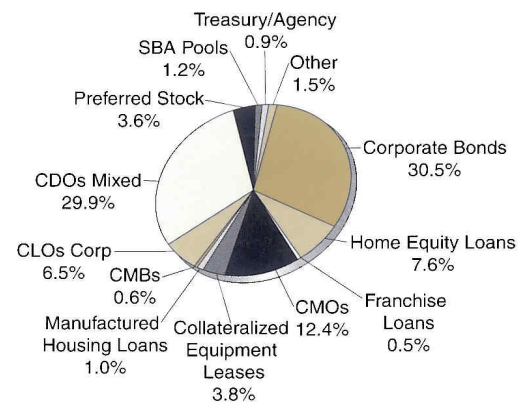

Credit Quality Distribution

2 Minimize Risk

The single best way to reduce the risk of any portfolio is through adequate diversification. The Intermediate portfolio is diversified not only with regard to issuer, but also industry, security type and maturity. Furthermore, the Select Intermediate Bond Fund does not invest in speculative derivatives.

Asset Class Distribution

3 Maintain a Fully Invested Portfolio

The Select Intermediate Bond Fund seeks to add value through sector allocation and security selection, not market timing. By remaining fully invested, the Fund benefits from any market rally, while simultaneously avoiding volatile swings in portfolio maturity.

Effective Maturity Distribution

Benefits of Fixed Income Mutual Funds

A mutual fund provides...

- Instant and Broad Diversification otherwise impossible for a single investor. It also allows an investor access to types of securities unavailable to individuals through a financial advisor.
- Greater Liquidity by providing an easy way to make additional investments and easy access to cash through the redemption of shares. This means investors can redeem any portion of their shares or invest any additional amount at any time.
- Consistent, Periodic Income through a monthly distribution of interest payments. A fixed income fund accrues interest daily and typically pays dividends on a monthly basis. This allows investors to more accurately plan investment cash flows and provides steady income to those who need it.

Past performance is not indicative of future results. The performance returns quoted represent past performance, and current returns may be lower or higher. The investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. To obtain performance returns current to the most recent month-end, please call 1-800-564-2188.

Total performance returns assume an investment at the beginning of the period, reinvestment of all income and capital gains distributions for the period, and sale of all shares at the end of the period. The funds offer other classes of shares whose performance will vary due to difference in charges and expenses. Total returns for periods of less than one year are cumulative. Performance returns shown here do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or the redemption of fund shares.

Bond funds will tend to experience smaller fluctuations in value than stock funds. However, investors in any bond fund should anticipate fluctuations in price, especially for longer-term issues and in environments of rising interest rates. Bond prices and the value of bond funds decline as interest rates rise. Longer-term funds (e.g., those that invest in high-yield debt securities) are more vulnerable to interest rate risk.
