

BEHIND THE BADGE

Willard “Bubba” Holifield

Corporal | Mississippi Highway Patrol

“Mississippi’s law enforcement are the best in the nation. Time and time again, these brave men and women answer the call to protect and serve, putting their lives on the line to protect ours. The Secretary of State’s Office is proud to honor their service to our great State.”

A resident of Rankin County, Mississippi, Willard “Bubba” Holifield has been with the Mississippi Highway Patrol since 2007. Corporal Holifield has also served on the Mississippi Highway Patrol SWAT Team for five years as both a sniper and entry personnel. He has also served with the Mississippi Army National Guard for 18 years.

From 2009 to 2010, Corporal Holifield spent a year on active duty in Mosul, Iraq, where he spent most of his time with the local police force conducting training on how to be an effective police officer.

Holifield and his wife have been married for 15 years. He has a 13 year old son and an eight year old daughter. Off duty, Holifield serves as a youth pastor at New Hope Fellowship Church. His passion is being with his family and serving God.
