

BEHIND THE BADGE

Robert Cullom

Sergeant | Flowood Police Department

"We must invest time in our youth, teach them leadership and leave a legacy for them," says Sergeant Cullom. "At the end of my life on earth, I want to know that I made a difference."

"Mississippi's law enforcement are the best in the nation. Time and time again, these brave men and women answer the call to protect and serve, putting their lives on the line to protect ours. The Secretary of State's Office is proud to honor their service to our great State."

Dellunt

Robert Cullom is a Sergeant with the Flowood Police Department and is currently the department's Training Officer as well as a S.W.A.T. Team Commander. Since December 2000, Sergeant Cullom's assignments have included Patrol, Criminal Investigations and Investigations Supervisor.

Sergeant Cullom served his country in the Mississippi Army National Guard for 21 years and served two tours of duty in Iraq. He was also a Warrior Leader Course Instructor at Camp Shelby where he spent time training men and women for deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan.

Sergeant Cullom is a graduate of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy and the Certified Investigators Program at MLEOTA. He is a Bronze Star medalist and two time Army Commendation medal recipient.

Outside of his law enforcement duties, Sergeant Cullom is a mentor for youth and at-risk youth. His heart for service is exemplified in his dedication to his community through various organizations, ministries and civic groups. Sergeant Cullom is married with two children.