

Cousteau Society is a charitable organization as defined by the Act, and is subject to the Secretary of State's regulatory authority. Therefore, the Secretary of State finds that he has jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties herein.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Cousteau Society registered with the Mississippi Secretary of State's Charities Division ("Division") on June 14, 2000.

2. Cousteau Society continue to file charity renewal registrations and extension requests until May 14, 2020, giving it a renewal date of November 15, 2020.

3. Failing to submit its renewal registration by November 15, 2020, Cousteau Society's registration expired. As a courtesy thereafter, the Division sent Cousteau Society electronic mail on October 26, 2021 indicating that it had failed to file a renewal registration or Final Report as required by law.

4. Cousteau Society was given an opportunity to file the renewal registration or Final Report.

5. To date, the Division has not received a renewal registration or Final Report from Cousteau Society.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

6. Pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-503(1), every charitable organization which solicits or intends to solicit contributions shall be registered with the Secretary of State prior to any solicitation.

7. Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-503(6) further states that in no event shall a registered charitable organization continue to solicit contributions in or from this state after the date such organization should have filed, but failed to file, a renewal and the financial report in accordance with the requirements of §§79-11-501 through 79-11-529.

8. Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-503(8) also states that any registered charitable organization which for any reason opts not to renew its registration must, upon the expiration of its registration, provide to the Secretary of State a Final Report.

9. Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-509(1)(e) states that the Secretary of State shall deny, suspend, or revoke a registration or exemption if the applicant or registrant has violated or failed to comply with any provisions of the chapter or any rule or order thereunder.

10. Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-509(2) also states that the Secretary of State shall notify the applicant or licensee of his intent to deny, suspend, or revoke a license and shall inform him of his right to request an administrative hearing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification.

11. Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-509(4) provides that whenever it appears to the Secretary of State that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, he may, in his discretion, seek one or more of the following remedies in addition to other remedies authorized by law:

(a) Issue a cease and desist order, with or without a prior hearing against the person or persons engaged in the prohibited activities, directing them to cease and desist from further illegal activity;

(b) Administratively dissolve the charitable organization; or

(c) Issue an order imposing an administrative penalty up to a maximum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for each offense, each violation to be considered as a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings;

IV. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

12. According to Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-503(1) and (6), every charitable organization which solicits or intends to solicit contributions shall file with the Secretary of State a registration statement and pay a filing fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). In no event shall a registered charitable organization continue to solicit contributions in or from this state after the date such organization should have filed, but failed to file, a renewal and the financial report in accordance with the requirements of §§79-11-501 through 79-11-529. Cousteau Society has failed to file a renewal registration and financial report with the Division after its registration expired, and is therefore in violation of these provisions.

13. Cousteau Society does not have the option of not renewing its registration in Mississippi. Pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. §79-11-503(8), if a registered charitable organization for any reason opts not to renew its registration, it must upon the expiration of its registration, provide to the Secretary of State a Final Report. Cousteau Society has failed to file a Final Report with the Division after its registration expired, and is therefore, in violation of this provision.

Code Ann. §79-11-509(4), the Secretary of State hereby orders Cousteau Society to immediately CEASE AND DESIST soliciting charitable contributions in and from the State of Mississippi as defined by Miss.
