The Secretary of State's Office and the Attorney's General's office was called to see what needed to be done since it was a tie in the Republican Supervisor's District 4 Race and both cited Section 23-15-601 of the Mississippi Code Section to follow. The tie in the Republican Supervisor's District 4 Race was decided by placing numbers 1-10 in a bowl and both candidates drew a number simultaneously. Mr. Lamar Beaty, of the Republican Party, explained to both candidates that the one that drew the highest number would be declared the winner. Tina Pullen drew the number 1 and Josh Russell drew the number 2. Josh Russell was declared the winner.
